- In the afternoon, visit Reunification Palace, the home and workplace of the President of South Vietnam during the Vietnam War. It witnessed the end of the Vietnam War during the Fall of Saigon on April 30, 1975, when a North Vietnamese Army tank crashed through its gates. Today this building is a museum and sometimes a venue for official receptions. You can visit the “War Room” from where the South Vietnamese forces were controlled, and most poignantly, the room where the North Vietnamese army took official control in 1975.
- Then visit the Notre Dame Cathedral, built between 1877 and 1883, most materials for Saigon's Notre Dame Cathedral were imported from France. Neo-Romanesque in form, it is a major centre of Catholicism in modern Vietnam, and one of the city's major landmarks. It was closed until Dec 2019 so you will visit outside only.
- Next to the cathedral stands the Saigon Post Office, a classic French colonial structure, is still a functioning post office today and features huge ceilings, a giant portrait of Uncle Ho, and many beautiful details.
- Final visit of the day is to Ben Thanh Market –a symbol of the city, stands in the centre of District 1. Packed to the rafters with everything from fruits, nuts, tourist kitsch to true bargains, it is a definite must-see.
- Other shopping centre if time permit.
- Dinner at local restaurant.
